CULT VENEZIA THE EUROPEAN FORUM OF CULTURE AND CREATIVITY

Cult Venezia- The European Forum of Culture and Creativity is an international event taking place every year at the end of November to present state-of-the-art innovation in the cultural and creative sectors. A 3-day non-stop event, the Forum is a meeting point for European designers, architects, conservators and restorers, journalists, intellectuals, scholars and professionals in general, who gather in Venice to discuss about current and future trends in culture and creativity.

The 2014 Edition of Cult Venezia is scheduled on November 21-23, 2014. The event will feature five independent sections - namely “Future in the making”, “3D Printing”, “Self Made Design”, “Open Restorations” and “New Digital Technologies for Culture” - all sharing “3D Culture: Design-Printing-Manufacturing” as their common theme. The Netherlands will be this year’s “Guest Country”.

For further details on the Forum, visit the website: www.veneziecult.it. The full schedule of events is now being defined and will soon be available online.
